Who can Vote by Mail?

You are eligible to Vote by Mail in Texas if:

- (1) You are age 65 or older by Election Day, Saturday, December 12, 2020;
- (2) You will be outside of Harris County for all of the Early Voting period (November 25 - December 8th) and on Election Day (December 12th);
- (3) You are confined in jail but otherwise eligible to vote; or
- (4) You have a disability.

What qualifies as having a disability, and what does that mean in the age of coronavirus (COVID-19)?

Under Texas law, you qualify as having a disability if you are sick, pregnant, or if voting in person will create a likelihood of injury to your health.

The Texas Supreme Court has ruled that lack of immunity to COVID-19 can be considered as a factor in your decision as to whether voting in person will create a likelihood of injury to your health, but it cannot be the only factor. You do not qualify to vote by mail as “disabled” if you have a fear of contracting COVID-19 but are otherwise healthy. To qualify, you must have an accompanying physical condition. If you do not qualify as “disabled,” you may still qualify in one of the other categories (1-3 above).

When can I apply to Vote by Mail? Is there a deadline?

You can apply to Vote by Mail at any time, but our office must receive (not just postmarked) your application by December 1 in order to send you a mail ballot for the December 12 Joint Runoff Election.

You can also drop off your application in-person to our temporary Election Administrator Office location at NRG (NRG Arena – Hall D, NRG Parkway, Houston, Texas 77054) and Harris County Election Harris County Administration Building (1001 Preston, Houston, Texas 77002)

Due to potential delays with the postal service, PLEASE DO NOT WAIT – APPLY NOW!
